

Annual Joint PhD Conference in Historical Studies

10–11 June 2024

LUX

Department of History, Lund University

* * * * *

P R O G R A M

* * * * *

A collaboration between the National Graduate School in Historical Studies at Lund University,
the Department of History at University of York,
and the Department of History at Bielefeld University

Monday, 10 June

- 10.00 Coffee, LUX (C212), Lynneum, Staff canteen
Welcome address by Henrik Rosengren, Director of the National Graduate School of Historical Studies, and Lina Sturfelt, Head of the Department of History, Lund University
- 11.00–12.30 Guided Tour of Lund with Magnus Olofsson (Department of History)
- 12.30 Lunch, Italia il Ristorante, Lilla Fiskaregatan 11
- 14.30–16.00 Parallel Sessions

Gender

LUX A332

Moderator: Martina Kessel (Bielefeld University)

Anita Hoffmann (University of York):
*'To Ladies and all Others of the Female Sex':
Seventeenth Century Commercial Women's Medicine and Shame*

Saba Mirhosseini (Bielefeld University):
*Unveiling Transformations: Global Dynamics
and the Status of Women in Iran (1979–2001)*

Dennis Albertsen (Malmö University):
The Pedagogical Methods and Self-Understanding of the Governmental Education Center for Criminal Youths at Bona 1905–1935

Teaching History & Translation

LUX C215

Moderator: Henrik Rosengren (Lund University)

Nicole Schwabe (Bielefeld University):
The Global as a Perspective for History Teaching in the two German States (1949–1990)

Mikael Bruér (Malmö University):
*Digital Technology and Historical Practices:
A View on Swedish History Teaching*

Mengjin Xue (University of York):
Female Translators in Indirect Translation in Modern China: Western Translation Through Japanese in the Early Twentieth Century

- 16.00 Coffee, LUX Foyer / Spikbrädan
Welcome address by Alexander Mauritz, Vice Dean of the Joint Faculties of Humanities and Theology, Lund University.
- 18.00 Pizza Picnic in the Botanical Garden
- 20.00 ca Joint activities for PhD Students

* * * * *

Tuesday, 11 June

- 10.15–11.45 Parallel Sessions

The Social Aspect of History

LUX C214

Moderator: Magnus Olofsson (Lund University)

Mahumda Poly (University of York):
*Diet, Death and Debates: Assessing the Inmate
Mortality in the Prisons of Bengal in 1879*

20th Century

LUX C215

Moderator: Cecilia Riving (Lund University)

Rakel Gunnemark (University of Gothenburg):
The Seismograph of the Soul: Knowledge Production about Personality in the 20th Century

Tobias Birgersson (Malmö University):
Rebel Fest 2024 – An Ethnographic Consideration: Irish Republican Rebel Songs in Practice

Vacant

Jakob Krusche (Bielefeld University):
Legitimization Practices of Violent Local Actors in Rural Mexico, 1983–2013

Yutong Wang (University of York):
*Slum Clearance in a ‘Semi-colony’: Coercion
and Restraint in Everyday Policing Practices in Shanghai in the 1930s*

11.45–13.00 Lunch, Forum Medicum

13.15–15.00 Will Tullett (University of York), Birte Förster (Bielefeld University),
and Elisabeth Geevers (Lund University):
Theoretical Concepts as Tools in Historical Research: Smell, Dynasty, and Media
Moderator: Kajsa Weber (Lund University)
Aula, LUX

15.00–15.30 Coffee, LUX (C212), Lynneum, Staff canteen

15.30–17.00 Parallel Sessions

Memory and Museum

LUX C214

Moderator: Maria Småberg (Lund University)

Sebastian Graf (Lund University):
Memories in Future Tense — Anticipatory Practices of Ukrainian Virtual War Museums

Anastasiia Serikova (Bielefeld University BGHS/History): Famine Interpretations in Museums as Difficult Heritage in Ireland and Kazakhstan

Lorenzo Bukhari (University of York):
Who were the Maronites in the early Islamic Period?

Theory, Time & Trust

LUX C215

Moderator: Aaron Hiltner (University of York)

Jacob Bohé (Bielefeld University):
*The Recontextualization and Dehistoricization of Theoretical and Ethical Fundamentals
of Valuation Practices*

Emma Lennhammer (Lund University):
*Time and Its Subjects in the Human Rights
Imaginary: The Case of the Sámi Peoples*

Rachael Haslam (University of York):
Trust and Distrust in Late-Medieval Dispute Narratives

19.00 Dinner, The Old Bishop’s House (Gamla Biskopshuset, Biskopsgatan 1)

* * * * *